Labour--Trade Disputes Act 1929--and Industrial Disputes Act 1947--Report for the year 1947--Recorded.

C.4.Pdl. 76/48. Office of the Commissioner of Labour, Chepauk, Madras, Dated:5-6-1948.

From:

R.M. Sundaram, Esq., O.B.E. I.C.S.,
Commissioner of Labour, M a d r a s.

To:

The Secretary to Government,
Development Department, Fort St. George,
Madras.

Sir,

Labour - The Trade Disputes Act, 1929 (Central Act VII of 1929) and the Industrial disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act XIV of 1947) - Annual report on the working of the two Acts for the calender year 1947.

I have the honour to submit the following reports on the working day of the Trade disputes Act 1929, from 1st January 1947 to 31st March 1947 and the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, from 1st April 1947 to 31st December 1947.

The Trade Disputes Act 1929, was repealed and the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act XIV of 1947) came into force from 1st April, 1947.

Courts of Inquiry:

As there were frequent strikes and threats of strikes in different parts of the Province, the Government of Madras appointed Courts of Inquiry to examine the conditions of Labour in the following industries:--

1. The ~~Motor~~ Motor Transport services and the Motor Transport workshops.
2. The Engineering Firms and type foundries.
3. Rice and Oil Mills and
4. Timber and Saw Mills in the West Coast.

The Government appointed also two other courts of Inquiry one to go into the question of reinstatement of the dismissed workers and reduction of outturn in the Lessons Department, of the Madura Mills Co., Ltd., Tuticorin, and the other to examine and report on the demands of the workers in the Buckingham and Carnatic Mills, Madras, who struk work on 11-3-47. The Court of Enquiry for the B & C. Mills was later converted into an Industrial Tribunal in order to make the award of the Tribunal binding on the parties.

In order to afford immediate relief to Motor Transport workers, the Government referred the question of payment of interim relief to the Industrial Tribunal for the Motor Transport Industry. On an interim report of the court of Inquiry the Government asked all individual operators and companies who had not paid any bonus to their workers during the last twelve months to pay a month's wages as bonus to workers who had completed 12 months' service and 15 days' wages as bonus to those with less than 12 months' service. The Court of Inquiry for the Motor Transport Industry was also converted into an Industrial Tribunal. The report of the Court of Inquiry for hand loom Industry and the award of the Industrial Tribunal for the Textile Industry were also published during the year.

For standardising the occupational nomenclature and work loads of different classes of workers in textile mills a committee was appointed by Government in persuance of the recommendation, of the Industrial Tribunal for the Textile Industry and the Committee's recommendations, were published in Government on 31-12-47.

The Government have appointed 6 Labour Officers in addition to the 7 existing Labour officers and 2 Special Labour officers for plantation Labour. The Government have also appointed a special Labour Officer to work under the Labour Officer, Coimbatore.

Under section 2 (n) (vi) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Government declared the Electric Tramways, Motor Transport ~~public utility~~ services and the cotton textiles industry in the Province to be public utility services. They have also declared the Sugar Industry and Transport by boats in minor ports in the province to be public utility services.

Under Section 4 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Commissioner of Labour, Madras, the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Madras, the Deputy Chief Inspector of Factories, Madras, have been appointed to be conciliation officers for the purpose of mediating in and promoting the settlement of Industrial Disputes. The Labour Officers, the Inspectors of Factories and the Inspectresses of Factories have also been appointed to be conciliation officers for areas within their respective jurisdictions.

Four Industrial Tribunals, under section 7 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 at Madras, Coimbatore, Madura and Bezawada, with one each retired District Judge as its sole member were also appointed. A list of the Industrial in the Province is given in Annexure I. The Industrial Tribunals so constituted were also appointed to exercise within their respective jurisdictions the functions of an appellate authority under section 2 (a) of the Industrial Employment(standing orders) Act, 1946, (Central Act XX of 1946).

The rules under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and the Industrial Employment (S.O.) Act, 1946, have been finalized and are being enforced. The Government have directed all employers of undertakings employing over 100 persons to form works committees. From September 1947, the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has been applied to all partially excluded areas in the Madras Province subject to the modification that section 1 (3) thereof shall be omitted.

In most of the cases where strikes of lockouts continued even after the dispute was referred for adjudication, the continuance the strike and lockout was prohibited under section 10 of the I.D. Act, 1947.

Adjudication under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947:--

A list of cases in which the Government referred industrial disputes for adjudication ~~wa~~ under section 10 (1) C of the I.D. Act, 1947 (Central Act XIV of 1947) is furnished in Annexure II-

Prosecutions sanctioned under the I.D..Act, 1947.

A list of cases in which prosecutions were sanctioned for non-implementation of the Tribunals' awards is furnished in annexure III.
